

General Business – Tip #1 Keep Non-disclosure Agreements Simple

E

I P I will be honest with you. I don't sign non-disclosure agreements. Neither do I ask anybody to sign any. I meet too many people who want to share similar ideas with me, all believing theirs to be original and if they hear it elsewhere, it's because they shared it with me.

But if you want to use one, here's a really simple one you can try:

Non-Disclosure Agreement

	agrees to maintain any and all (Recipient)
<pre>information shared with me regardi: developed by:</pre>	ng the idea and/or invention
(Inventor)	in confidence and not to use such information in any way without his	or her express written permission.
(Inventor)	(Recipient)
Date:	Date:
	Date:after "permission"
	after "permission"

That's it. Feel free to use it!
